THE VICOLO SERIES

The Aneto

From our Vicolo series, our two-story 2,552 square foot Aneto brings coveted double front porches on select elevations for iconic Lowcountry character. This primary-down design offers 3-bedrooms with 3.5-bathrooms in the main home, including a downstairs home office. The second floor features a loft in addition to 2-bathrooms, one for each bedroom. The Aneto's natural light inundates the home, while the open concept design makes everyday living a true pleasure. Like all plans in the Domus Collection, the optional detached Outvilla expands your home with even more space for the things you love most.
